BASE BALL.

Local Players Went to Allensville Yesterday.

Frank Bassett, Jeff and Stonewall Morris, Gill Edwards, Hardy and Morrel Haddon, Earl Stone and Jas. and Ben Winfree went to Allensville yesterday to play a game of ball with the Allensville team. Edwards will pitch and Earl will catch. The party left here at 8 o'clock to make the trip by automobile.

TWO TO ONE

Lyon County Votes Out Licensed Saloons.

Kuttawa, Ky., Aug. 31.—Lyon county voted out saloons today. The majority of the "drys" was 510 in a total vote of 1,246, a vote of more than two to one against the saloons. The elections were quiet throughout the county, despite the intense interest in the contest.

JUDGE HAGER'S FINE ADDRESS

Opening Speech at Lexington to Big Crowd Saturday.

WAS GRAND RALLY.

Discusses Democratic Doctrines in a Statesman-like Way.

Lexington, Ky., Aug. 31.—Lexington was thronged today with voters, and candidates from all over Kentucky, attracted here by the opening of the State Democratic campaign. When the speaking began this afternoon there was in attendance one of the largest and most enthusiastic crowds that ever gathered at a political meeting in the grand old commonwealth. The Bluegrass section was especially well represented. Judge Hager was introduced by Congressman W. P. Kimball. His speech was a masterpiece of effort and was received with great enthusiasm. The meeting was the formal opening of the Democratic State campaign.

Gov. Beckham and John K. Hendrick also spoke. Governor Beckham had no set speech for the occasion, as he intends to open his campaign for United States Senator later.

A handsome reception was tendered the distinguished speakers this morning at the Phoenix Hotel. (His speech will appear in Thursday's Kentuckian).

GAINED 8 POUNDS.

Dr. Jenkins Returns to His Pulpit Much Improved.

Rev. Millard A. Jenkins returned from North Carolina Saturday much improved in health, having gained 81 pounds in two weeks. He preached twice Sunday to large congregations. The night sermon was on "Mt. Olivet. The Second Coming of Christ." A delightful feature of this service was a solo by Mrs. Ross Davis, of Chicago, who possesses a richly trained voice of rare strength and sweetness.

MR. STANLEY'S SPEECH HAD TRUE RING.

Eloquent Champion Defended The Tobacco Association.

SCORES THE TRUST.

Concludes With a Terrific Denunciation of Night Riders.

Hon. A. O. Stanley spoke at the Tabernacle Saturday afternoon for nearly three hours to a crowd that almost filled the big building. Many ladies were present and visitors were on hand from several counties in Kentucky and Tennessee. After some stirring music by the band, Chairman W. W. Radford called the meeting to order and Eld. H. D. Smith opened it with prayer. President Chas. H. Fort, of Springfield, introduced Mr. Stanley briefly by saying "Go ahead and say anything you please and we will back you up."

Mr. Stanley made no reference to this rather significant remark, but at once launched into his carefully prepared reply to the Saturday Evening Post and other eastern papers. His speech in full will appear in the Kentuckian in the near future. It was taken down in shorthand and Mr. Stanley will give out an authorized version. It was along the same lines as the synopsis that appeared in the local papers last week. Its features were the strong, able and eloquent defense of the association as an organization; the vigorous denunciation of the methods of the Tobacco Trust and its allies, the eulogy of Hopkinsville as "one of the best and bravest little cities on earth," and finally the fiercest and most vehement denunciation of "night riding" and similar lawlessness that has been heard anywhere. The Kentuckian has no fault to find with Mr. Stanley's speech, unless it may be in the fact that he sought to minimize outrages already committed. This fault, however, was fully remedied when he came to the "serious, heart to heart talk" with the "boys" who were causing the trouble. He told them that if they kept it up that some night some one who refused to be scared would shoot one of them down and when the mask was torn from his face and an association man found behind it, the fact would be heralded all over the country and an irreparable damage done to a noble and lawful association. He made it as strong as words could make it and called upon the officers to not only denounce but to help the officers of the law in all their efforts to break up night riding in all its branches. If Mr. Stanley's advice is followed—and he is confessedly the association's ablest leader—there will be nothing else done to disgrace the association that is doing so much to bring prosperity to the farmers.

Saved Her Son's Life.

The happiest mother in the little town of Ava, Mo., is Mrs. S. Rupee. She writes: "One year ago my son was down with such serious lung trouble that our physician was unable to help him when, by our druggist's advice, I began giving him Dr. King's New Discovery, and I soon noticed improvement. I kept this treatment up for a few weeks when he was perfectly well. He has worked steadily since at carpenter work. Dr. King's New Discovery saved his life. Guaranteed best cough and cold cure by R. C. Hardwick, druggist, Ava and St. Louis. Trial bottle free.

Little Visits with Uncle By Satisfied.
We travel ready up and down
To find the town of Satisfied.
The bees are buzzing all the day,
The birds are singing all the way,
And sauteurs chatter in their play—
But we, a restless army, find
The yielding soil to Satisfied.

Beside our path the daisies bow—
We hold the plow to Satisfied!
We heed them not: The fragrant trail,
The perfume of the daisy-gale,
The sesame of golden grain—
We merely plod with dizzy brain
Through tears and pain to Satisfied!
By scattered blossoms wet with dew,
Tells on our crew to Satisfied!
The beauties of the country road
We pass with ever leader lead,
By rocky trails our eyes we goad
To look beyond the sunlit bow
And court the cheer of Satisfied!

Throughout this life we tug and strain
And fag the brain to Satisfied—
And always it is far ahead:
A fair mirage of golden red,
A legend city built, 'tis said,
Upon the hopes of those who strode
Along the road to Satisfied!

Why travel madly up and down
To find the town of Satisfied?
Be glad and satisfied to-day!
Be glad to-morrow—all the way!
Be glad beside the road and stay
Where God has sent his glories down
And every town is Satisfied!

Getting Even.
Hickson lives in the country. Last summer he went visiting, got into a city barber's chair and had to pay $1.50 to get out again. This spring he resolved to get even.
A gawky man from the tall uncut walked into a barber shop in Chicago yesterday and asked if he could get a shave.

"Cert!" replied the dapper barber, flitting his red apron around the customer's head and slapping him up for a lemon.

"Better have a haircut first, sir. Hair needs trimming."
"All right, go ahead."
The barber cut his hair. Then examining it closely, he remarked: "Seems as if your hair is coming out fast. Looks like the ends was splitting. I can tell better when I give you a shampoo. Have a shampoo!"

"I don't mind if you do," from the victim, who seemed to feel flattered at the amount of attention being paid him.

The barber gave the shampoo, using fresh eggs at 10 cents each. Then he got busy again.

"This hair ought to be singed. It's coming out scandalously. Singe!"
"Why, yes, I suppose you might as well."

The barber singed the hair.
"Better have a little of Dr. Doem-up's hair salve, I guess. That will be about the best thing after this singe. And now for some hair tonic and a shave!"

The barber did all these.
"Try an electrical massage. Makes your face look as young as a baby's. Better have a massage and get fixed up right, hadn't you?"
"Well, yes," hesitatingly, "I suppose."

Then when the rub got out of the chair and the barber handed him another of those $5 break-your-back barber bills, the tall, uncouth yahoo from the back district shoved out his hand familiarly and chuckled:

"Why, how're Bill? How're all th' folks? I swan, I'd a knowed you anywhere. I'm Hank, yer brother from Newbery. Well, well, well! Hate t' have t' introduce myself, but this here bill makes it necessary."

And then the city brother had to come up to the chalk and look happy, but the happiest man in town was the visitor. He had got even with a city barber, even if the barber was his brother whom he hadn't seen in 20 years!

Tares.
"No matter the price, we have to have a living at any cost," says a New York editor. Oh, I don't know—there's Philadelphia.

FIREWORKS NIGHTLY.

ERUPTION OF VESUVIUS TO BE REPRODUCED.

PAIN'S FAMOUS PYROTECHNICS

One of the Most Remarkable Amusements Ever Shown in the South.

Whether or not it is the promise held out to us in the rainbow that the earth will not again be destroyed by water but by fire, the interest in fire works is as old as history, or at least runs back to the period when they were first introduced hundreds of years ago in China. To make a big event entirely a success, it is almost necessary to add to the amusement features a great fire works exhibition. This has been done by the State Board of Agriculture, under whose auspices the Kentucky State Fair is to be held in Louisville, September 16 to 21.

A contract has been closed with Pain's Pyrotechnic Co. to bring from New York complete, Pain's new monstrous spectacle, "Vesuvius," a gigantic reproduction of Naples and Vesuvius. This is an exact picture, 350 feet in length and fifty feet high, of the modern city of Naples and of Vesuvius, from sketches and views taken on the spot by Pain's special artists and reproduced by the eminent scenic artists, Messrs. Reed and Rafter, and their assistants. It is the most elaborate spectacle and summer night's feat of illumination ever attempted. It depicts the "Carnival of Naples" and the eruption of Vesuvius as they occurred on the night of April 3 and 4, 1896.

The subject lends itself to the most gorgeous of scenic environment, and the most wonderful electric and pyrotechnic effects. Two immense acts are devoted to the reproduction. The "Carnival of Naples" is attended by the King and Queen of Italy, and other crowned heads. The streets of Naples are shown on a festive day; the populace and visitors are in gala attire; there is a feast of lanterns and ballet chorus, concluding with the introduction of some wonderful European specialties. While the carnival is at its height, a small curl of smoke begins to ascend from Vesuvius. The alarm begins and increases as the mountain rapidly belches out its lurid flames and seething ashes.

The first act is concluded and the second, the awe-inspiring calamity, is begun. Refugees crowd into the city; the King and Queen depart for a town in the mountains; there is mass in the cathedral. Old Vesuvius, in tremendous detonations, speaks angrily to the inhabitants for scores of miles around; the rain of ashes with rivers of lava continue, and the destruction of the city is complete.

This great spectacle is to be given nightly at the Kentucky State Fair grounds, to be followed by Pain's wonderful fire works, the display of which will be changed each night.

The contract made between the Pain's Pyrotechnic Company and the State Board of Agriculture, calls upon the former to bring the entire Manhattan Beach, Coney Island, New York. There are 250 performers, properly and splendidly costumed. The fire works program covers fifty numbers, consisting of all of Pain's latest novelties.

"YOU TAKES YOUR CHOICE."

Races of Every Known Form at Kentucky State Fair.

It is said of the Kentuckian that half of his cranium is filled with brain matter and the other half with miniature horseshoes. The ability of the citizen of old Kentucky to gain eminence demonstrates clearly the truthfulness of the first half of the statement, and his love of a horse race indicates that the latter half is by no means an untruth. The Kentucky State Fair, which will run for six great days at Louisville, beginning September 16th, holds out special inducements to every one, whether or not a Kentuckian, to polish up the horseshoes imbedded in his head by reflected glory.

The State Fair management has arranged the most interesting speed program covering trotting, pacing and running races. As the new home of the State Fair, which was Douglas Park, has the fastest trotting track in this country, and perhaps in the world, many records are expected to be smashed during this meeting.

Those who have been robbed of their scalps through constant contact with rubber tire that carry gasoline tanks, will find in the automobile races that which appeals to them, while others who have turned their thoughts from things terrestrial to things celestial, will gain their desires in the balloon races.

The Kentucky State Fair has in its making the promotion of the breeding interests of Kentucky, a college to educate the people of the whole south to the recognition of the value of the best grades of all kinds of live stock.

The most exciting of aerial sports—balloon races—will be on the amusement program of the Kentucky State Fair.

There will be 2,689 awards, an average of 418 awards a day for six days, at the Kentucky State Fair.

DRIVEN AWAY BY TAXATION

Very Large Capital Withdrawn From Kentucky.

The Case of the Walsh Estate in Lexington Points Out a Dangerous Result of Our Tax System.

The manner in which the tax system of Kentucky may seriously affect its business interests was recently given a very striking demonstration in Lexington. The estate of Mrs. Clara Bell Walsh, amounting to about $750,000, had been for many years managed by the Security Trust company of Lexington, as trustee. A petition was filed recently in the Fayette circuit court, asking the court to terminate the trusteeship, so that Mrs. Walsh might put her property in the hands of a trust company in St. Louis. The Security Trust company, which had been acting as trustee, did not oppose this suit, being distinctly stated in the petition of Mrs. Walsh that the services of the trust company had been in every way satisfactory, but that the taxes imposed upon her property were burdensome.

The peculiar feature of the case lies in the fact that Mrs. Walsh, herself, resides in St. Louis and, therefore, claims that her personal property should not be taxed at Lexington in the hands of her trustee. The court of appeals having held otherwise, and Mrs. Walsh, not feeling justified in paying a tax rate of 52c on the stocks, bonds and other investments in the hands of the Kentucky trustee, since she could not derive any possible good from the payment of this tax, decided to remove the property to the state of her residence.

A considerable part of the estate was invested in local securities—the bonds of local corporations and real estate mortgages. This will mean that the money will gradually be withdrawn from investment in these local securities and reinvested by the St. Louis trustee in other securities, thus constituting a loss of the much money to enterprises in and around Lexington and Fayette county. It means just that much greater scarcity of needed capital.

The Lexington Herald has been, with great energy and skill, showing the result of this sort of taxation on the business interests of the state. It points out, among other things, the inconsistency in the decisions of our courts, which hold that a man who lives in one Kentucky county and has intangible personal property, such as stocks, bonds, or money, in the hands of a trustee in another county of Kentucky, must pay the tax in the county of his residence and not in the county where the trustee resides; but if the owner of the property moves entirely out of the state, then he can escape a tax in the county where the trustee resides, as well as pay the tax in the state where he takes up his new residence, thus constituting double taxation.

Consumed With Taxation.

In her petition asking for the change in trusteeship Mrs. Walsh says: "Plaintiff's desire, if said Clara Bell Walsh be not entitled to a discharge of the trustee, that there be a change in the person of said trustee, and if it can be done that the funds and property in trust be transferred to a trustee duly qualified under and resident in the state of Missouri, where they have their home. Plaintiff states that the reasons why a change of trustee is desired do not in any manner relate to the conduct or fidelity of said trustee, but are on account of the heavy burdens of taxation imposed on said estate by reason of the residence of the trustee in a state and city different from the home of the beneficiary."

Court of Appeals Decision.

The Herald adds the following fact as to the case: "Under the decision of the court, Mrs. Walsh's personal property in the hands of the Security Trust company would be liable for city, state and county taxes here; and realizing that she, a non-resident of the state, could derive no possible benefit from taxes paid to the city on her personal property, Mrs. Walsh takes this means of getting possession of her property. The removal of the estate to another state is a powerful argument against the wisdom of the system of taxation in force in Kentucky; for though the investments made by the trustee in local securities are so safe and highly regarded as to be retained, yet when a reinvestment is made it is likely that the heavy portion of the funds will be invested elsewhere, thus depriving this community and state of so much badly needed capital for its progress and development."

Poverty or Perjury.

"A prominent attorney of this city, in discussing before the Taxation Committee of the Kentucky senate in 1905 the tax system of this state, denounced our personal property tax as necessarily leading either to poverty or perjury. We do not know whether any statistics on the subject are available, but we think it is safe to guess that at least three-fourths of all the intangible personal property, such as bonds, notes, and cash, which is assessed for taxation in Kentucky, is in the hands of non-residents. It is a fair and many think to place upon those least able to bear it nearly all the burden of such a tax!"

Do You Feel Chilly, Then Feverish and Ache all Over?

Feel Worn-out, Blue and Tired? Have You a Fresh Cold, With Frequent Hacking Cough? Sensation of Soreness in the Chest or Back?

Don't let your case run into bronchitis, or some other obstinate and dangerous malady. The very best medicine to take in such a case is Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. Made without alcohol or dangerous drugs, it contains that rare combination of native medicinal roots that will ally a cough (from its out, as it were), restore the circulation, assist the appetite and digestion, and consequently restore tone to the entire system. That is the reason people look happy once more after taking it—they feel like living, because their liver is active, the blood in their arteries is full of that life-giving quality—rich, red blood. The blood in turn feeds the nerves.

Nervousness and neuralgia are not fed on the indication that the nerves are not fed on the invigorating blood. This "Medical Discovery" of Dr. Pierce is man's own remedy. It tones up the organism and invigorates its functions, furnishing to the body one of its necessary constituent principles of which it is in need.

This preparation is of pleasant taste, agrees perfectly with rebellious and sensitive stomachs, and is extremely effective in restoring tone and vigor to the entire system. It cures indigestion, flatulence of the stomach and at the same time the blood-vessels are given such a toning up as to throw off a cold. One very good reason why it restores the health of run-down, pale and emaciated people is because it first throws out the poisons through the liver and kidneys. It then begins the reconstructive work by making up the blood and making good, rich, red blood.

I have been a sufferer from indigestion for some thirty years. At times I was cured by S. W. Allen's, of Greenville, W. Va., and have used medicine here and there. But physicians, which gave me only a little temporary relief. They said I could never be cured. Last winter I was stricken with the worst cold that I ever had. I suffered with such severe pains in the pit of my stomach that I could not eat. I suffered with such weight went down from one hundred and thirty-five pounds to one hundred and thirty pounds in about two months time. I then consulted Dr. J. C. Watson, of Lexington, Ky., and he gave me Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. By the time the cold was cured, I was able to eat and my weight went up to one hundred and thirty-five pounds in about two months time. I am now suffering so continued until I had my fourth bottle of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. I am truly thankful for the great benefit which I have received from your medicine, and can cordially recommend it to others."

It Stands Alone

not only in its ingredients but also as the only medicine for stomach, liver and blood disorders, which absolutely contains purely vegetable and PERFECTLY HARMLESS INGREDIENTS.

It Stands Alone as the best of which take their patients fully into their conditions and tell them exactly what they are taking. This Dr. Pierce can afford to do, because his "Golden Medical Discovery" is made of such ingredients and after a working formula that has thousands of cures to its credit, placing its merits above criticism.

It Stands Alone as Nature's

and others. These are the purest, most potent, and most effective of all the roots known to man. They are the roots of the forest, and have never been equalled. Made of concentrated and refined vegetable principles, extracted from native American plants and roots, therefore purely vegetable, and containing no alcohol or other harmful ingredients, it is a perfect and powerful regulator, three times as powerful as a cathartic.

The damages to the Courier-Journal building were not as heavy as at first reported and with wonderful enterprise the Courier-Journal jammed the water out of its machinery rooms and resumed business its own plant after being out only one day. A temporary roof has been put over the wreck until the building can be restored. The walls are uninjured.

Richard Mansfield, the greatest of all American actors, died in New London, Conn., Friday and the funeral services were held yesterday afternoon. He was 50 years old. His estate, estimated at $900,000, is left to his wife and son.

Emperor William's only daughter, Princess Victoria, aged 15, is to wed Prince Henry of Battenberg, aged 18, a prince of the Queen of Spain.

How to Remain Young.

To continue young in health and strength is what Mrs. N. F. Rowan, McDonough, Ga., did. She says: "Three bottles of Electric Bitters cured me of chronic liver and stomach trouble, complicated with such an unhealthy condition of the blood that my skin turned red as flannel. I am now practically 20 years younger than before I took Electric Bitters. I can now do all my work with ease and assist in my husband's store." Guaranteed at R. C. Hardwick's drug store. Price 50c.

A Michigan woman spanked her young hopeful with a shingle, exploding a dynamite cap in his hip pocket. The boy's hip was torn off, inflicting fatal injuries, and his mother lost two fingers of her hand and sustained other lesser injuries.

Worked Like a Charm.

Mr. D. N. Walker, editor of that spicy journal, the Enterprise, Louisville, Va., says: "I ran a nail in my foot last week and at once applied Bucklen's Arnica Salve. No inflammation followed; the salve simply healed the wound." Heals every sore, burn and skin disease. Guaranteed at R. C. Hardwick's, druggist, 25c.

The total number of deaths in the Quebec bridge collapse is settled at 79.

Bad Blood

PEACE AFTER LONG ILLNESS.

Mrs. Bettie Green Dade, wife of Mr. J. Bankhead Dade, died yesterday morning, in the 63d year of her age of a chronic disease which had been sapping her vitality for a year and more. She is survived by her husband, three daughters, and one son Mrs. Virginia Lipscomb, Miss Lucy Dade and Mrs. Annie Hudson, of Oklahoma, and Mrs. Thomas Dade, of Kansas City. She was a sister of Messrs. Geo. V. John R. and Thomas Green, of this city, and James Green, of Texas.

Burial took place in Riverside cemetery from the family residence on East Ninth street, yesterday afternoon. A short service was held at the grave conducted by her pastor, Rev. A. P. Lyon.

Mrs. Dade was the younger daughter of the late Thomas H. Green. She was a thoroughly consecrated woman and in early life united with the Presbyterian church, of which her father was a ruling elder years before the division of the church and up to the time of his death. She had all the advantages of a liberal education in her girlhood along with her only sister, Mrs. Randolph Dade, and was a most devoted wife and mother. Strong in her convictions, charitable to all and naturally kind and loving, her friends and neighbors will long remember her as one of God's best women. In all her suffering she exhibited a spirit of trust and submission that will long be remembered by those who knew her and loved her.

IN PRIME OF HIS LIFE.

Harvey W. Breathitt Is Cut Down By Pneumonia.

SICK ONLY ONE WEEK.

Was In Public Life For More Than Thirty Years.

Mr. H. W. Breathitt, one of the most prominent citizens and attorneys of Hopkinsville, died Friday night at nine o'clock, after a week's illness, of pneumonia. He was taken sick with a chill Friday, but came to his office Saturday and remained until noon, when he was compelled to go home and take to his bed. The disease made rapid progress and by Thursday his condition was pronounced hopeless. His lungs gradually filled up, until death came. Harvey Whitlock Breathitt was the third son of Maj. John W. Breathitt, and a grandson of Dr. A. Webber, a pioneer physician of Hopkinsville. He was born Mar. 4, 1851 and in 1870 went into the county clerk's office under his father as a deputy, a position he held for 24 years. After one term with Jas. P. Prosser, he went into the abstract business, which he followed, also practicing law, until 1906, when he became clerk in the office of his brother, County Judge Jas. Breathitt.

As an official Mr. Breathitt was noted for his uniform courtesy and politeness. His patience and kindness in anticipating the wants of the public was proverbial. He possessed a wider range of information about county records than any man in the county and it was always a pleasure to him to assist those in search of information in any of the offices in which he had held a position. His memory was very re-tentive and he could often give information sought without referring to the records.

Mr. Breathitt was married in 1893 to Miss Kate Starling, who survives him with one child, Harvey Jr. He was a member of the First Presbyterian church. His pastor, Rev. E. H. Bull, conducted his funeral at four o'clock Saturday afternoon and a procession of sorrowing friends followed his remains to Riverside Cemetery. There were many floral offerings, including one from city officials. The bar also held a meeting and adopted suitable resolutions.

Physicians Called It Eczema in Worst Form—Treated Disease for a Year but Could Not Cure It—Patient Became Despondent—Suffering Promptly Alayed and

DREADFUL DISEASE CURED BY CUTICURA

"About four years ago I was afflicted with black spots all over my face and a few covering my body, which produced a severe itching irritation, and which caused me a great deal of annoyance and suffering, to such an extent that I was forced to call in two of the leading physicians of this city. After a thorough examination of the disease, they announced it to be eczema in its worst form. They treated me for the same for the length of one year, but the treatment did me no good. Finally I became despondent and decided to discontinue their services. Shortly afterwards, my husband in reading a copy of a weekly New York paper saw an advertisement of the Cuticura Remedies. He sent me the entire outfit, and after using the contents of the first bottle of Cuticura Resolvent in connection with the Cuticura Soap, and Ointment, the breaking out entirely stopped. I continued the use of the Cuticura Remedies for six months, and after that every spot was entirely gone and the affected parts were left as clear as ever. I have not felt a symptom of the disease since. It was three years ago. The Cuticura Remedies not only cured this kind of dreadful disease, eczema, but of other complicated troubles as well, and I have been the means of others being cured of the same disease by the Cuticura Remedies, and I don't hesitate in saying that Cuticura Resolvent is the best blood medicine that the world has ever known. Mrs. Leslie E. Stedje, 2100 E. 10th Ave., Selma, Ala., Oct. 28, 1905."

BLACK CAMEL

Among Cole Brothers' Collection of Strange Animals.

COLOSSAL CAMEL.

$10,000 Offered for Any Other Show That Can Produce its Equal.

With Cole Brothers' World-Toured Shows which will exhibit in Hopkinsville on Saturday September 7 in connection with their many other strange animals is the only pure black camel on exhibition. Not only is this camel a rarity on account of his raven black color, but also because of its gigantic proportions. Of such extreme rare value is this animal Cole Brothers have a standing offer of $10,000 for any other show that can produce its equal. "Black Jumbo Sahara" is the name of this towering ship of the desert.

In Egypt, where the agents of the Cole Brothers discovered this colossal camel, it was such a rare animal that the natives did homage to it and it was as sacred to them as any of their strange idols to which they knelt in worship. They believe that in this camel was embodied the spirit of some departed dignity or sainted ancestor who had been sent them in the camel form. The camel was not allowed to perform any labor and was attended to constantly by natives selected on account of their high church standing. Its robes and trappings were of the finest silks and velvets highly jeweled and no royal personage ever received as much care and attention as did this huge camel.

When the agents of Cole Brothers Shows made overtures to purchase this gigantic black camel, they narrowly escaped violence at the hands of the fanatics. It was only by the intervention of the American Minister at Cairo that the agents escaped and later through the same channel the purchase of the animal was effected. Even when the deal was closed a clause was inserted in the bill of sale that when the camel died its bones would be returned to Egypt for burial. This camel is but one of the many rare animals in the menagerie of Cole Brothers' Shows.

CAME CLEAR

By Offering to Make Amends as Law Requires.

Prof. Lee B. McKnight, of Clardy, had his examining trial Saturday on a charge of seducing Katie Brown, under promise of marriage. As a defense he appeared in court before Special Judge O. H. Anderson and offered to marry Miss Brown. Her father, Jno. H. Brown, refused the offer, holding that it was not made in good faith. The law dismisses the criminal charge when the prisoner offers to marry the plaintiff in such cases, and McKnight was thereupon released.

GUTHRIE FAIR

Will Commence Thursday of This Week.

The great Guthrie fair begins next Thursday and will continue three days. Secretary Lester has been quite busy for a month getting things in readiness for the big event and the finishing touches are now being put on. The fair this year will be the biggest ever held at Guthrie and doubtless the attendance will be the largest of any similar event at that place.

In addition to liberal premiums and purses for horse, hogs, cattle farm products, including a number of special prizes for tobacco the first day, a premium of $100 in gold will be paid to the lady bringing the ten prittiest girls to the fair. The beauty contest will take place at 2 o'clock p. m. the first day.

Often The Kidneys Are Weakened by Over-Work.

Unhealthy Kidneys Make Impure Blood. It used to be considered that only urinary and bladder troubles were to be traced to the kidneys, but now modern science proves that nearly all diseases have their beginning in the disorder of these most important organs. The kidneys filter and purify the blood—that is their work. Therefore, when your kidneys are weak or out of order, you can understand how quickly your entire body is affected and how every organ seems to fail to do its duty.

If you are sick or "feel badly," begin taking the great kidney remedy, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, because it cleanses your kidneys as well they will help all the other organs to health. A trial will convince anyone.

If you are sick you can make no mistake by first doctoring your kidneys. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy, is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases, and is sold on its merits by all druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles. You may have a sample bottle by mail free, also a pamphlet telling you how to find out if you have kidney or bladder trouble. Mention this paper when writing to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, at the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

"SIX GREAT DAYS."

POPULAR EVENT IN KENTUCKY STATE FAIR.

SPECIAL FEATURES ARRANGED.

Program Announced For Every Day and Every Night—All Are to Be Elucidated.

Six special days and as many special nights mean that the Kentucky State Fair will fulfill its promise to have something doing every minute of six great days and nights during the week of September 16th at Louisville. Col. W. W. Hite, President of the Louisville Board of Trade, is the General Chairman of the Committee on Special Days, and has announced the following:

Monday, September 16—School Children's Day. C. B. Nordeman, Member Louisville School Board, Chairman.
Tuesday, September 17—Fraternal Day. R. S. Brown, President Louisville Commercial Club, Chairman.
Wednesday, September 18—Louisville Day. Geo. G. Fetter, Director Louisville Board of Trade, Chairman.
Thursday, September 19—Kentucky Day. Lew B. Brown, of Harrodsburg, President Kentucky Press Association, Chairman.
Friday, September 20—Southern Indiana Day. Adam Heimberger, President New Albany Commercial Club, Chairman.

Saturday, September 21—Everybody's Day. Everybody, Chairman. The Special Night Committee is headed by J. V. Beckmann, Manager of the Retail Merchants' Association, who has announced the special nights as follows:

Monday, September 16—German-American Night. F. W. Kelsker, Chairman.

Tuesday, September 17—Irish-American Night. Thos. McCabe, Chairman.

Wednesday, September 18—Labor Night. John Young, President Louisville Federation of Labor, Chairman.

Thursday, September 19—Press Night. Young E. Allison, Chairman.

Friday, September 20—Military Night. Col. W. B. Haldeman, Colonel Commanding First Kentucky Regiment, Chairman.

Saturday, September 21—Parade Night. Smith T. Bailey, Chairman. Mr. Nordeman expects School Children's Day to bring little folks not only from Louisville, but from all over the State. He has appointed every county and city school superintendent in Kentucky as a member of his committee.

For Fraternal Day, a large tent will be erected where headquarters may be opened by representatives of all fraternal organizations to receive, welcome and register guests. It is the hope of Col. Brown to have a series of drills by the uniform ranks of the different organizations.

Mr. Fetter will have the active cooperation of commercial, industrial, financial and professional organizations in making Louisville Day one that will put it in red letters on the Fair calendar.

No one will be bold enough, however, to challenge the popularity of Kentucky Day. Every indication points to its being the banner day of the week. Mr. Brown has named many prominent editors of Kentucky as his associates on this committee. He is counting upon several large excursions from different points. The editors will hold a rally on the night of Kentucky Day, which is known as Press Night, and Col. Allison is arranging a very attractive program. Press headquarters are to be established at the Fair grounds.

Mr. Heimberger is not only appointing Southern Indiana editors, but heads of commercial organizations in that section, as members of the Southern Indiana Day Committee.

The programs for every night will be attractive. This will be especially true of Military Night, when the First Regiment will give an exhibition drill in front of the grand stand.

While the days and nights have been given some special names, it does not follow that the State Fair management wishes to confine the attendance to those interested in the way that the name indicates. On the contrary, the State Board of Agriculture invites everybody to come every day and every night.

At a great outlay of money the State Board of Agriculture has contracted with Captain Roy Kuehnle to bring his passenger-carrying airship, the marvel of the century, to the Kentucky State Fair, September 16 to 21, and give daily flights and exhibitions with a flight ride in the air guided by a control light.

John's famous Manhattan Beach race track and a splendid symposium on the eruption of Vesuvius, an actual reproduction of the awe-inspiring calamity of 1893, will be given nightly in front of the grand stand at the Kentucky State Fair in Louisville, September 16 to 21.

A State Fair ribbon has the backing of the Commonwealth of Kentucky. It is a trophy of big value aside from the money that accompanies it.

Seasonal acrobatic acts will be given free each day at the Kentucky State Fair, in front of the grand stand.

Why?
Why should I long for gold,
For treasure-heaps or hoards?
Why should I yearn for land,
Estates, or richer stores?
My heart cries out for love,
Not throne, nor sparkling gem!
It finds contentment in
The simplest diadem!

What is less sweeter than
The song of birds at morn,
The crooning of the breeze,
The rustling of the corn?
Where is there castles like
The dainty home I love,
With her to welcome me,
Nesth sun-kissed skies above?

Where are the treasure-heaps
One gathers on the way,
That fill the heart with joy
And gladness all the day?
Where is the crown that soothes
Like marital caress?
Where is the gem that darts
To vie with Happiness?

Dischorde.
Kissing will have to be a great deal more dangerous than it is now, to discourage the girl in the hammock at the summer resort.

That's what I say. I always did like cold weather best.

Women like fat men for husbands because the mark is bigger when they throw fatirons.

Never ask a man when he first knew his wife. The man may say to himself he says, "After we were married, sir"—or "madam."

Sometimes a man doesn't like to yield to the medium at a spiritualistic seance for fear of being jawed by his first wife.

Yes, dear, it is decidedly improper to chawk peanuts at the theater.

To be proper, you should shuck them before entering, so they'll slip them into your face when you simulate a yawn. Chew noiselessly and swallow without attracting attention.

This is a hard, old world. Cigarette smokers in Illinois have had to invest their working capital in coffin-nails, as the new law no longer permits the sale of the noxious nuisances.

Buying enough cigarettes to last a lifetime draws heavily on the purse of the ordinary cigarette smoker.

If the telegraphers strike, how will Willie McArthur McArthurington get money from home?

Was it Jonah or the whale that was a nature faker?

The open season for chasing a poor little tennis ball all over an acre lot and awaiting the stuffing out of it, is on. Stop! Have you no pity?

I never know whether to get up early on a holiday or to sleep late. If I get up early, I have no extra rest and it doesn't seem like a holiday, when as, if I stay in bed until late, there is so little of the holiday left that I seem to have missed a golden opportunity.

Gee, this is a tough old world.

The way a woman figures is—If you take out insurance, the house won't burn. I guess she's right, too. At any rate, if I don't take out insurance, it usually does burn.

Some men prefer to go home as bachelors and be met by a bull pup that was his tail in welcome, than to go home as a married man and be met by a wife who wags a sharp tongue and growls.

An Illinois man came home from work and got mad because his wife and two daughters were attending church, instead of cooking his dinner.
Seems like men are getting so they cannot expect their wives to keep house these days. The fellow was asking his wife to do the family washing next.

A small boy in Illinois defines the word "lazy" as "wandering 'you would rather sit down and tell the other fellow how to do it'."

Money.
He said his earthly wants were few,
He would not strive from morn 'til night!
He much preferred a modest home
That stood upon a sloping site!

He wanted only food and clothes,
He did not care for wealth or fame.
He did not see the reason why
Men fought the tigers for a name!

But this was many years ago
And since that time he's had a home
And now the poor benighted soul
Is slaving far into the night!

A little wealth is very bad!
It sets the miser impulse free
And turns an erstwhile modest man
Into a mere moneybag!

Wealthy Military Man.
Gen. Anson Mills, owner of several valuable buildings in Washington, is one of the wealthiest military men in the country, and his fortune is rapidly increasing. General Mills, who retired from the army several years ago, made his wealth by inventing a machine which manufactures the cartridge belt which is now used by most of the armies throughout the world.

GOOD NEWS.

Many Hopkinville Readers
Have Heard it and Profited Thereby.

"Good news travels fast," and the thousands of bad back sufferers in Hopkinville are glad to learn that prompt relief is within their reach.
Many a lame, weak and aching back is bad no more, thanks to Doan's Kidney Pills. Many people are telling the good news of their experience with the Old Quaker Remedy. Here is an example worth reading.

R. H. Buck, living on South Franklin street, Madisonville, Ky., says:
"Doan's Kidney Pills is an exceedingly good remedy for kidney complaint and backache. I was never seriously troubled until about nine months ago I was taken with an attack of backache caused I think by a strain from over lifting. I was annoyed a good deal. I saw Doan's Kidney Pills advertised and concluded to give them a trial, got a supply. They proved very satisfactory, curing the attack in a short time.
Some time later, there were symptoms of a recurrence, and I appealed to Doan's Kidney Pills again. They relieved me in a short time, and they keep my kidneys in excellent condition."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents.

The ill peculiar to women, take different forms.
Some ladies suffer, every month, from dark rings round their eyes, blotches on their skin and tired feeling. Others suffer agonies of pain, that words can hardly express.
Whatever the symptoms, remember there is one medicine that will go beyond mere symptoms, and act on the cause of their troubles, the weakened womanly organs.

Wine of Cardui

Mrs. M. C. Austin, of Memphis, Tenn., writes: "For five (5) years I suffered with every symptom of female disease, but after using the well-known Cardui Home Treatment, I was entirely well."
